The Mark of God (Jan 4)

Throughout Scripture, God marks His people with an invisible sign of His covenant belonging—from Passover blood to the seal of His Spirit.

Day 1

The first mention of God's mark—Passover blood as a sign of redemption.

“It shall be as a sign to you on your hand and as a memorial between your eyes, that the LORD's law may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand the LORD has brought you out of Egypt.” (Exodus 13:9)

Read Exodus 13

Day 2

The Sabbath established as an eternal sign between God and His people.

“It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.” (Exodus 31:17)

Read Exodus 31

Day 3

The Shema—binding God's words as signs on hand and forehead.

“Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one! You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.” (Deuteronomy 6:4-5)

Read Deuteronomy 6

Day 4

Rahab's scarlet cord—a token of God's covenant loving-kindness.

“Now therefore, I beg you, swear to me by the LORD, since I have shown you kindness, that you also will show kindness to my father's house, and give me a true token.” (Joshua 2:12)

Read Joshua 2

Day 5

Those who grieve over sin receive God's protective mark.

The Two Pillars: Relationship and Righteousness (Jan 11)

The Mark of God stands on two unshakable pillars: a real relationship with God and a life of obedience to His commands.

Day 1

God's covenant promise spans generations—mercy to those who love Him and keep His commandments.

“For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.” (Exodus 20:5-6)

Read Exodus 20

Day 2

The New Covenant promise—God's law written on hearts, and an intimate knowledge of Him.

“But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put My law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.”
(Jeremiah 31:33)

Read Jeremiah 31

Day 3

The terrifying words: “I never knew you”—religious activity without genuine relationship.

“Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!’” (Matthew 7:22-23)

God's firm foundation stands: He knows those who are His, and they depart from iniquity.

Day 6

The test of genuine faith: keeping His commandments proves we truly know Him.

Day 7

The end-times remnant defined: those who keep God's commandments and hold the testimony of Jesus.

“And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.” (Revelation 12:17)
